Wheaton earned its first conference title since 2003 in a 1-0 victory over Millikin on October 29 to close out the regular season. It was the Thunder's 15th conference championship in school history. The team enters tournament play against fourth-seeded North Park, a team they defeated 2-1 on September 26. The Thunder had three players score 20 or more points including Joel DeLass (Spring Lake, Mich./Western Michigan Christian) (nine goals, eight assists for 26 points), Matt Swartz (Omaha, Neb./Burke) (seven goals, 11 assists for 25 points) and Stephen Mesko (Holt, Mich./Mason) (nine goals, four assists for 22 points). Joe Selvaggio (Wayne, Ill./Wheaton Academy) and Kit Carson (Aurora, Ill./Waubonsie Valley) split time at goalkeeper this season. Selvaggio started 10 games, tallying 38 saves and four shutouts. Carson started four games and had 13 saves with three shutouts.

#2 Carthage (10-6-3, 5-1-1)

Carthage enters the tournament as the defending conference champion. The Red Men joined Wheaton in the NCAA Division III Men's Soccer Championship last season, losing in the first round to Washington (Mo.). Carthage secured the No. 2 seed with a four-game unbeaten streak in conference play to end the season and will face No. 3 seed Illinois Wesleyan, a team they defeated 4-0 on September 28. Chris Fidlow (Gurnee, Ill./Carmel Catholic) was the team's leading scorer, finishing with seven goals and six assists for 20 points. Kevin McGleam (Chicago, Ill./St. Joseph) was second with four goals and one assist for nine points. Cody Alimondi (Naperville, Ill./Central) had four goals on the season. Andy Connor (Lake Zurich, Ill./Carmel Catholic) started 14 games in goal this season, finishing with 72 saves and six shutouts.
